

Presentation Rubric

	4	3	2	1	Points
Spelling and Grammar	Correct use of grammar, punctuation, and capitalization. Fewer than three spelling errors.	1-3 examples of incorrect grammar, capitalization, and punctuation. Fewer than 5 spelling errors.	4-6 examples of incorrect grammar, capitalization, and punctuation. Fewer than 8 spelling errors.	Some examples of capitalization and punctuation. 14 or more spelling errors. 10-12 grammatical errors.
Effectiveness	Presentation included all information to understand the topic. Presentation was highly effective.	Presentation included most information to understand the topic. Presentation was effective.	Presentation was missing more than two key elements. Presentation was not effective.	Presentation was lacking in most key elements and had many inaccuracies. Presentation was not effective.
Originality	Presentation showed considerable originality or inventiveness. Content and ideas were presented in a unique way.	Presentation showed some originality or inventiveness. Content and ideas were presented in an interesting way.	Presentation showed an attempt at originality or inventiveness in at least 50% of it.	Presentation showed very little attempt at original thought.
Use of Graphics	All graphics were attractive in size and color and supported the theme or content of the presentation.	A few graphics were not attractive, but all supported the theme or content of the presentation.	All graphics were attractive, but a few did not support the theme or content of the presentation.	Several graphics were unattractive and detracted from the content of the presentation.
Background	The background enhanced the content and did not detract from the presentation. Choice of background was consistent.	The background did not detract from the text or other graphics. Choice of background was somewhat consistent.	The background somewhat detracted from the text or other graphics. Choice of background was not consistent.	The background made it difficult to see the text or competed with other graphics on the page.

Total Points
 ____/20
Average
